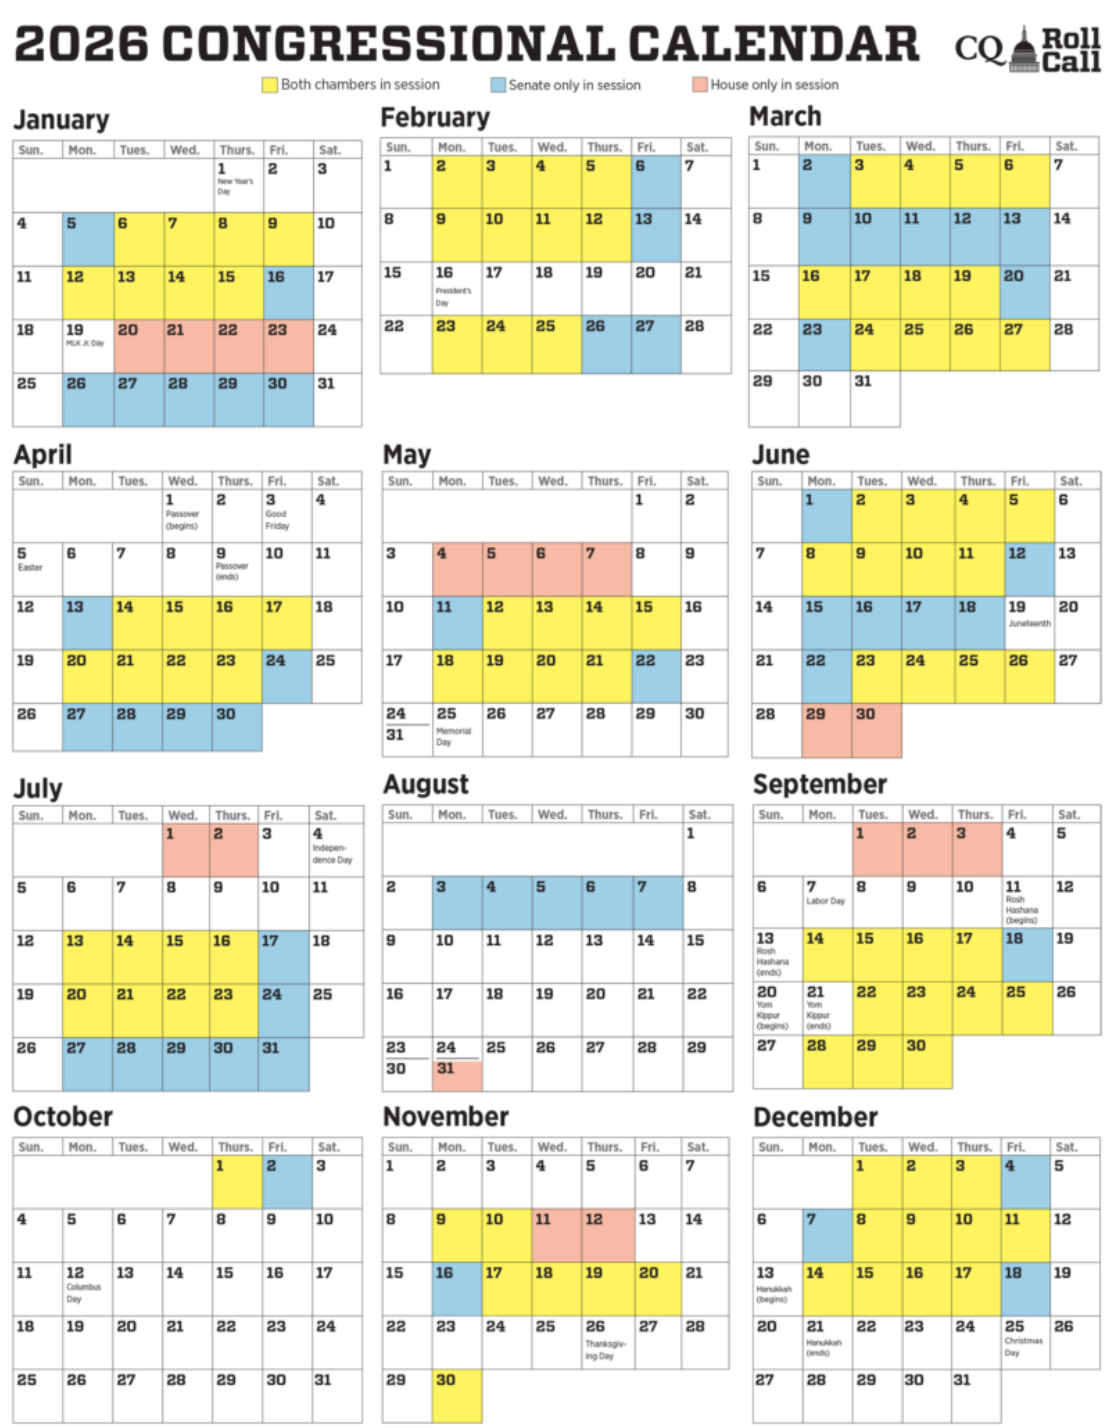
2026 Congressional Schedules

The 2026 congressional calendar includes fewer legislative days than 2025. Most notably, both chambers will recess for the month of October in advance of the mid-term elections.



Office of Personnel Management (OPM) 2026 Federal Holidays

- Thursday, January 1: New Year's Day
- Monday, January 19: Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day
- Monday, February 16: Washington's Birthday
- Monday, May 25: Memorial Day
- Friday, July 3: Independence Day (observed)
- Monday, September 7: Labor Day
- Monday, October 12: Columbus Day
- Tuesday, November 11: Veterans' Day
- Thursday, November 26: Thanksgiving Day
- Friday, December 25: Christmas Day

Senate Balance of Power

Republicans maintain control of the United States Senate with a 53-47 seat majority. Two Independent Senators remain in the chamber, including Angus King (I-ME) and Bernie Sanders (I-VT), both of which plan to continue caucusing with Senate Democrats. Vice President J.D. Vance serves as the President of the Senate, casting any tie-breaking votes in the case of any 50-50 split on the floor.

New Members of the 119th Congress

UNITED STATES SENATE

Sen. Angela Alsobrooks (D-MD)

A lifelong Marylander, Angela was born and raised in Prince George's County. After graduating from Duke University and the University of Maryland School of Law, she worked as a law clerk in the Howard County Circuit Court, and later the Baltimore City Circuit Court, before becoming the first full-time Assistant State's Attorney to handle domestic violence cases in Prince George's County. Angela held a variety of roles in county government before making history as the youngest and first woman to be elected Prince George's County State's Attorney. In 2018, Angela was elected Prince George's County Executive, the first woman to hold the position and the first Black woman elected to the office of County Executive in Maryland history. Angela has one daughter and is a fan of the Washington Commanders. Source: Bloomberg Government

Sen. Alan Armstrong (R-OK)

Alan S. Armstrong, born in Oklahoma, is a seasoned energy executive with a career spanning over four decades. He began his professional journey at Williams Companies as an engineer and steadily advanced through various operational and commercial roles, eventually serving as President and CEO from 2011 to 2025 before becoming Executive Chairman of the Board in July 2025, guiding the company's long-term strategy and governance. Armstrong earned a bachelor's degree in civil engineering from the University of Oklahoma in 1985. He began his career at Williams as an engineer and later held senior positions, including Vice President of Gathering and Processing, Senior Vice President – Midstream, and leadership roles in the company's North American midstream and olefins businesses. In March 2026, Oklahoma Governor Kevin Stitt has appointed Armstrong to fill Oklahoma's U.S. Senate seat following the confirmation of Senator Markwayne Mullin to serve as the Secretary of Homeland Security. Armstrong has been married to wife Shelly for over three decades.
